

Farming Options Agenda

Jan 19th
Social
Jan 20th
	Topic	Speaker	Description	Room
0700-0745	Registration/Check-in	Maurissa Glick
0745-0800	Intro and Welcome	Joe Ricker
0800-0830	Farm Safety	Dr Bill Field
0830-1000	Beekeeping/Heroes to Hives	Dylan Ryals	Dylan is a Phd candidate student in the Purdue Entomology Dept. He will speak on what to expect as a beginning beekeeper and opportunities to begin beekeeping
1000-1030	Break
1030-1100	Rabbits	John Antill	John is the owner of Little Critters Nursery where he raises rabbits for meat, 4-H showing and heritage breeds for sale
1100-1130	Sheeps	Forrest Bopp	Forrest is the owner of Heavenly Acres Farm where they provide a farm and learning adventure to visitors. It includes learning oppourtunies with sheep.
1130-1200	Goats	Mike Lundborg	Mike is an experiecned and passionate Goat entrepenuer with many years of experience with Nigerian Dwarf Goats as a yoga experience.
1200-1300	Lunch
1300-1400	AgroTourism	Forrest Bopp	Forrest is the owner of Heavenly Acres Farm where they provide a farm and learning adventure to visitors.
1400-1500	Mushrooms	Cortland Carrington	Cortland is owner of American Mushroom & Spice Co where they not only produce mushrooms for sale but wholesale fruit blocks for sale as well.
1500	Break
1530-Compl	Integrated Farm Practices Roundtable Discussion	Jamie Perry-NRCS Lennon-Celtic Glenn	Jamie is a NRCS Natural Resource Specialist with vast experience in educating people in agriculture. Lessie is the owner of Celtic Glen Heritage Livestock LLC They provide high-quality, gentle breeding stock of cattle, goats, rabbit and sheep. They offer rare breed livestock, as well as pasture-raised craft meats direct from farms and through retail spaces and restaurants.
1830-Compl	Dinner-Membership meeting
Jan 21th
Fair Oaks Adventure				